

Biography:

Kevin Kohlmann is a 1988 graduate of Massachusetts Maritime Academy. He sailed for Exxon/ SeaRiver Maritime aboard tankers for 12 years and earned the license of Master Mariner, Unlimited Tonnage. Kevin then worked for Military Sealift Command in the operations division and as Safety Manager. As Safety Manager he was responsible for the safety of approximately 5,800 mariners. Kevin is currently the Director of Safety at the Maritime Administration in which he identifies safety issues for the maritime industry and recommends changes.